

My Spouse's Retirement

by Geoff Davies

There've been some rather stressful times
This year, as we well know.
Families, dogs and houses;
What? Something else? Oh no!
Still, we've got each other
To share our future plans.
You can cook the dinners
I'll wash the pots and pans.

You're sometimes moanie Minnie
Which really gets me down.
But I can understand it
When I seem to act the clown.
Still, now that you're retired
And getting in my way.
There's always Henry, our little dog,
To take out during the day.
