

My Sisters's Birthday

(1999)

The years have flown;
Your children have grown.
And already it's here -
Your sixtieth year.

Times have been hard;
Times have been good.
May luck come your way
As it deservedly should.

We look back with pleasure;
We look back with grief.
May the future be bright;
With calm and relief.

Now that you're sixty;
And 2000 is here.
Love to you, Val;
And lots of good cheer.
